

HASBRO Donates Children's Games to Kid-Kits Project

September 13, 2005 - To assist Relief International's Kid-Kit's Project. Hasbro has donated over 2000 hand held games to be included in all Kid-Kit's backpacks. Half of the hand held games are travel "GuessWho" games donated on behalf of Ora & Theo Coster, the inventors of the game who requested that Hasbro donate the games to victims of hurricane Katrina.

Kid-Kit's are backpacks filled with items specifically for children affected by Hurricane Katrina - many of whom have lost everything they own. Kid-Kits are intended to bring comfort and meet basic needs through items such as school supplies, hygiene items, games and toys, and non-perishable food items.

Kid-Kit's was created and is facilitated by Relief International, a Los Angeles-based humanitarian relief organization. RI's relief programs include providing food, shelter, health services, educational and community development. RI is a registered charity under IRS code 501(c)3 and all contributions are tax-deductible. Visit www.ri.org or contact 310.478.1200 for more information.
